

JUSTIN LONG

Thank you so much for your generous invitation to have Justin minister in your community. It is our joy to be able to serve the Body of Christ in different contexts. We know that it is costly to host gift ministries, and we are honored that you would consider inviting us. We trust that the investment will bear much fruit for your community.

We've put this letter together so that you know what to expect and to suggest some guidelines for hosting us. The heart behind these guidelines is to ensure that we are able to bless to the best of our ability and allow for healthy ministry practices to be maintained long-term as we seek to serve as many different contexts as possible.

Travel & Accommodation

Flights: As Justin is often on the road, it helps him to be part of a frequent flyer program with Lufthansa. We will make the arrangements at this end and you will send us the funds to cover it since flights have to be booked in advance.

*This principle works the same when Justin travels by train.

Accommodation: For any events requiring overnight stays, Justin requests at least a single bedroom preferably in a hotel or bed and breakfast.

Travel and Meals: We ask that any necessary ground transportation and meals be arranged and provided for by our hosts. Please note, Justin tries to stick to a low-carb diet.

Honorarium

We understand that money can be an uncomfortable topic, but we hope the openness here will be helpful. Justin Long Ministries does not have a fixed income and so is heavily reliant on honorariums in order to cover ministry running costs, including Justin's salary and resource production. In view of this, we would ask to receive an honorarium for all ministry engagements. We do not have a set amount for honorarium, but do ask you to take into account the high cost of running a ministry, and living in an expensive city, as Justin does not receive a salary from any church. We understand that in some contexts this is not possible, and we never want finances to be a hindrance. We ask that you be aware of your budget when you respond to this letter so that Justin can plan accordingly.

To help maintain financial integrity and trust, Justin is happily accountable to both Justin Long Ministries Advisory board.

Schedule

Please send us the schedule you have in mind beforehand so we can all agree on it. Once we have approved a final schedule, please do not book any other meetings even if they are casual. If the need arises please talk to Justin first. We will not do "added" meetings that are not part of the approved schedule.

Ministry time

Please leave the logistics of the ministry time to Justin (do not make announcements as to how it will proceed) as he will hear the Lord during the meetings to know what He wants him to do and how He would like him to proceed with ministry.

In order to minister prophetically to the people they need to bring their own recording devices such as cell phones, MP3 players, iPods, laptops, etc. Justin will not prophesy over anyone if it cannot be recorded.

Cancellation Policy

We understand that so much thought and planning go into hosting outside speakers and we would only cancel in rare circumstances where there is an emergency. In that event, Justin kindly reserves the right to cancel a speaking engagement with as much notice as possible.

If after reading the above you feel like Justin could be a good fit for your event, please email us at info@justinlongministries.org to confirm that you are happy with the guidelines or to raise any questions that you may have. Once we receive this communication from you, we will be able to consider your invite more fully and will get back to you with our response as soon as possible.

Once again, thank you so much for your invitation.

Much love,
Justin Long Ministries
